It is perhaps better to empower the Tahsildars (as suggested by the Collector) etc to requisition all varieties of foodgrains. The Revenue need not perhaps be restricted to the rationed articles foodgrains. The case may be returned to Pub (War)

It is enough if powers to requisition paddy and rice are given to these officers

I see no objection to the draft. As I understand the S. Kanara scheme there may have to requisition not only for statutory rationing but for non-statutory schemes. Paddy alone will be the main foodgrain but the draft may remain as it is
